A GAS MAIN DELAYS WORK.

Obstruction at Twelfth and Walnut Streets Necessitates a Change in Telephone Conduit Plans.

Workmen engaged in excavating for the mpany's conduit encountered an obstruction yesterday morning in the between Main and Walnut streets near Twelfth street, in the shape of a gas main and a lot of Iron braces of the Met-ropolitan Street Rallway Company. The ccurse of this section of the conduit will be changed to the north side of Twelfth street west of Wyandotte, and work will have to be stopped till the plans are made. Many men waiting for work were greatly disappointed when the obstruction was disand a gang had to be thrown Revision Committee of the Council Decides Upon Alterations in License Ordinance.

The revision committee of the council celebrated Washington's birthday yesterday by holding an all day session and hearing a number of complaints from persons who are opposing the new license ordinance. Lime and cement dealers, commercial agencies, commission men and several other lines of business were represented among the kickers. The committee will recom-mend a number of changes in the provis-ions of the ordinance, and will give the measure a thorough overhauling before re-porting it to the council.

WAS MAYOR FOR TWO DAYS.

Speaker Smith Late in Making the Discovery - He Immediately Granted Two Pardons. Speaker J. G. Smith, of the lower house of the council, has been acting mayor of Kansas City for two days and did not know it until yesterday. He hastened to invest himself with the dignity of his office, and exercised his first mayoralty pre-regative by pardoning Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kennedy from the workhouse. The couple was sent up for fighting.

The rooms were fitted up in Oriental style, with inwere fitted up in Oriental style, with incesse burning, and the costly russ and brie-a-brac made an extremely rich display. The courteous manager, Mr. Robert Grant, showed a reporter for The Journal rugs valued at from 19 to $1.00. Upon being asked whether he expected to sell a $1.00 rug here. Mr. Grant replied: "Well, that is a fair price for the rug, there being no limit on it. When the rug is offered it will be sold for what it will bring, however, not for what it was worth." This collection will positively be sold here regardless of its cost. Beginning to-morrow at 10:20 a. m. piece by plece of these valuable goods go at auction, and if there are two or more bids the article will be sold. "Please assure your readers that here they will receive good treatment and good value for their money." said Mr. Grant.

MR. JULIAN IS CONFIDENT. ins Just Returned From Jefferso

City and Says Fyke and Johnson Will Be Confirmed. Chief of Police Julian returned to the city yesterday. He was looking well. The chief said he had been at Jefferson City to settle up the business of the house auditing committee of 1855, of which he was member. Chief Julian said he had finished all his work at the state capitol and that he would probably not return there during the present session. He was reuctant about discussing the forthcoming eport of the senate investigation commit-ee, but thinks that Fyke and Johnson will be confirmed, and that he will be retained. The chief will be at his office every day now for at least a week, he says.

MEN ARE PATRIOTIC

ORATE WASHINGTON'S BIRTH.

excellent Speeches Made to the Old Men's Association by E. L. Dimmitt, Rev. Dr. Calkins, Col. Waters and Others.

The Old Men's Association celebrated Washington's birthday yesterday afternoon with an elaborate programme of exercises at the old Y. M. C. A. auditorium, Ninth and Locust streets. Members of the Early Settlers' Association, G. A. R. and Veteran Conpany A were present by invitation. The venerable president, Thomas Lewis, who was born only nine years after Wash ington's death, presided, and made an in-teresting preliminary address in calling the meeting to order. Music was furnished by the choir of the Westminster Presbyterian church, consisting of Miss Berta Richard son, soprano; Mrs. Carrie Farwell-Voor lices, alto; Mr. Thomas Manville, tenor and Mr. Silas R. Milis, basso; Mrs. E. C. White, organist. The G.A.R. quartette gave stirring selection, and a piano solo by little Miss Clida Young, an overture on violin and piano by Professor Kimmell and Miss Carrie McEwen completed the musical

Mr. E. L. Dimmitt, the founder of the cars of the sixty required for active mem-ership, came from Clay county, his present nome, to address his "offspring." as he is alled the "father of the association." Mr Dimmitt paid a high tribute to the association, and singled out Colonel W. F. Cloud, Dr. W. H. Claggett, President Thomas Lewis, W. W. Morgan and E. S. Pierce nd closed with a quotation from Lincoln's Gattysburg speech.

Eev. Dr. Wolcott Calkins, pastor of Ciyde Congregational church, delivered an eloquent and scholarly address on "The Diquent and scholarly address on "The Dicine Ideal in Civil Government," which was replete with historical examples. Dr.
Calkins held that St. Paul's letter to the Romans, asserting that all authority came from God, and enjoining obedience to the powers that be, contains the profoundest system of government ever promulgated, lie held that persons were justified in resisting laws that exceeded their jurisdiction. John Brown, he said, had no business to interfere with the authority of Virginia, but any man had a right to resist the fugitive slave law because it invaded the home and exceeded its jurisdiction. Dr.
Calkins held that labor was going down when it was led into riots, and capital was going down when it was led into trusts, life closed by urging the people to hold their votes as they did their consciences, to overthrow the party that betrayed its trust, even if they could not fully trust the party
they substituted.

Colored L. H. Waters made one of his votes as they did their consciences, to overthrow the party that betrayed its trust, even if they could not fully trust the party they substituted.

Colonel L. H. Waters made one of his inimitable speeches and was in his happiest vein. He gave a fsw sly digs at Dr. Calkins' theory of the divine right of kings. "The only government by divine right," he said, "was when the Lord ran it and He soon quit it. The only divine government is when the people govern themselves. All women are queens and the peers of Queen Victoria abound in every land. I don't believe that hatchet story. A man that hasn't serie enough to lie can't command an army. I believe that if he could have conveyed misleading information to Cornwallis, he would have done it. All's fair in love and war and I'll bet he lied to lots of good looking. Virginia isses about how he loved them.

Colonel Waters kept the audience convulsed with laughter for half an hour. Judge S. P. Twiss was to have read a historical paper, but owing to the lateness of the hour it was dispensed with. Judge Twiss would have told scme interesting facts about the association, whose oldest member was born in 1808 and whose youngest, the first to die, was born in 1802, just 160 years after the birth of Washington. During the existence of the association Revs. Jenkins, George, Neel, Mitchel and Powell and Messers. Harmon Bell and J. S. Botsford, among others, have addressed the association on subjects of interest. Among the members who have died were General F. E. Sickies, General Mason Brayman and Horace Merlam.

At the close of the programme the following officers were re-elected:

President, Thomas Lewis; vice president, W. F. Cloud; secretary and treasurer, E. S. Plerce; directors, E. F. Rogers, W. P. Cloud. A. Holland, George Trehoar and S. P. Twiss.

The following honorary members were elected: F. M. Ferguson, Mrs. A. L. Brandenburg, Rev. L. M. Belden, W. M. Williams, "L. W. Billen and J. W. Chandler.

HAS RESIGNED AS PASTOR OF SOUTH PROSPECT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

He Will Go to Fulton, Mo., Where He Has Received a Call-Field of Labor Will Be Enlarged in His New Pastorate.

Rev. Alonzo B. Phillips, pastor of the South Prospect Christian church, at Twenty-second and Prospect, has accepted a call from the Christian church of Fulton Mo., and will close his pastorate in Kansar City about April 1. It is now three and a half years since Rev. Mr. Phillips came to Kansas City from New York, and in that time the South Prospect Christian church has been built up from a small mission, then located in an unpretentious frame building at Eighteenth and Prospect, until ow it is one of the most powerful Christian churches in Kansas City, with a congregation numbering close to 500 souls. A handsome stone church has been built at Twenty-second and Prospect, and the Sunday school is one of the largest in the state. Rev. A. B. Phillips graduated from Union seminary, in New York city, in 1893. During the year before he graduated he was assistant pastor of the Forty-sixth Street Christian church in New York, of which Rev. B. B. Tyler, the noted evangelist, was the pastor. Since coming to Kansas City he has built up a reputation as one of the most forcible pulpit speakers, and has greatly endeared himself to his congregation. The first intimation of their pastor's intention to leave Kansas City was given to the members on Sunday, and they were grieved to hear it.

Speaking of his reasons for accepting the call to Fulton, Rev. Mr. Phillips said yesterday: "I do not go because my relations with my congregation here are not the most pleasant, but because a new field is open to me, and one in which I have desired for a long time to work. Our church at Fulton, Mo., is one of the strongest in the state, and the church orphans' home is located there, a work in which I am particularly interested. The Christian church in Missouri is not as strong in the large cities as in the smaller cities of the state. Our denomination is very strong in the portion of the state to which I am going, and while I will part with feelings of sadness from my Kansas City congregation, with which I have grown up, I fell that the change will be a good one for me."

SOMEBODY KILLED THE WOMAN. But Officers of the Law Have Not Been Very Alert in Searching for the Murderers. Despite his announcement Sunday night that an autopsy would be unnecessary to determine the cause of death of Miss Dora E. Grubb, Coroner Bedford decided yesterday that he would hold a post mortem terday that he would hold a post mortem examination. Deputy Coroner Wheeler, assisted by Drs. C. A. Dannaker, C. F. Wainwright and A. H. Cordier, held the autopsy at Undertaker Stine's morgue yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, and two hours later the body was taken to Union cemetery and buried. An inquest will be held this morning. Dr. Wheeler announced after the autopsy that death had been due to a criminal operation. The case will be reported to Humane Officer Greenman and the prosecuting attorney. The sad circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Grubb, who had always borne a good rep-Grubb, who had always borne a good reg Grubb, who had always borne a good reputation and has been the main support or her widowed mother, has caused the authorities to see the necessity of action to stamp out a growing evil. About a year ago a young girl from Wichita was killed in a similar manner in this city, and for a time public indignation ran high, but rather than have the notoriety of the scandal the girl's relatives dropped the matter.

Emery, Bird, Thayorve. POOR FELLOWS!

The manufacturers of this country have indeed had a hard time of it for the last few years. One season they would make up a big lot of goods which wouldn't sell. They would have to close them all out at a good deal less than cost. Then, to keep their hands going, they would rush around and prepare for next season, and wind up the same way. In fact, they've lost money hand over fist for several years. Of course this is so. Have you picked up a newspaper printed in any town in the United States during the last five years that somebody wasn't advertising 'goods from 'So and Such' at less than the 'cost to manufacture'"? One manufacturer of shoes who failed last season had been in business less than two years, and had made less than 100,000 pairs of shoes each year. Over two hundred firms in the country "bought the 'So and Such'" stock, or part of it, and when you put together what they all claimed to have there were over 2,000,000 pairs of these shoes being slaughtered. Dry goods stocks got it the same way. Importers lost millions-hatmakers simply passed their hats out to anybody at any price, and ye klothing makers simply begged retailers to take their goods to keep them from busting. We have all of us seen the sublime picture of a little retail man buying a hundred and ten suits of cheap clothing and saving the big manufacturer from ruin. Rats! The Nebraska, of all the clothing stores in America, has not bought goods to save anybody. Of all the stores in America, we have not sold goods at a loss or even at cost. We have done a straight business-have cleaned up our stock by not buying too many goods, and to-day begin putting in stock our new line of clothing for men, boys and children for spring, 1897.
